

THIRTIETH CONGRESS—SECOND SESSION.

Ex. Doc. No. 60.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

CONSULS, VICE CONSULS, &c.

MESSAGE

FROM THE

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

TRANSMITTING,

In compliance with a resolution of the House of the 20th of February, 1849, a list of consuls, vice consuls, &c.

MARCH 2, 1849.

Laid upon the table, and ordered to be printed.

To the House of Representatives of the United States:

I communicate, herewith, a report of the Secretary of State, together with the accompanying papers, in compliance with the resolution of the House of Representatives of the 20th ultimo, requesting the President to communicate to that House, "a list of all consuls, vice consuls, and commercial agents, now in the service of the United States; their residence, distinguishing such as are citizens of the United States from such as are not; and to inform the said House whether regular returns of their fees and perquisites, and the tonnage and commerce of the United States, within their respective consulates or agencies, have been regularly made by each; and to communicate the amount of such fees and perquisites, for certain years therein specified, together with the number of vessels and amount of tonnage which entered and cleared within each of the consulates and agencies for the same period; also the number of seamen of the United States who have been provided for and sent home from each of the said consulates for the time aforesaid."

JAMES K. POLK.

WASHINGTON, March 2, 1849.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, 2d March, 1849.

The Secretary of State, to whom was referred a resolution of the House of Representatives of the 20th ultimo, requesting the President to communicate to that House, "a list of all consuls, vice consuls, and commercial agents, now in the service of the United States; their residence, distinguishing such as are citizens of the United States from such as are not; and to inform the said House whether regular returns of their fees and perquisites, and the tonnage and commerce of the United States, within their respective consulates or agencies, have been regularly made by each; and to communicate the amount of such fees and perquisites, for certain years therein specified, together with the number of vessels and amount of tonnage which entered and cleared within each of the consulates and agencies for the same period; also the number of seamen of the United States who have been provided for and sent home from each of the said consulates for the time aforesaid;" has the honor to submit the enclosed statements, which comprise all the information which could, under the resolution, be prepared at this department in time to transmit during the present session of Congress.

JAMES BUCHANAN.

The PRESIDENT.

List of statements enclosed.

No. 1. Statement showing the names of the consuls and commercial agents of the United States; their places of residence; of what country a citizen; and the amount of fees received by each in 1846 and 1847, as far as is shown by the returns received at the Department of State.

No. 2. Statement showing the number of destitute American seamen who have been provided for by U. S. consuls and commercial agents in foreign ports; the number sent home, whose passages have been paid by the consuls, and the commissions allowed on their disbursements for the relief of said seamen, during the fiscal years ending 30th June, 1846 and 1847.

No. 3. Statement showing the number of destitute American seamen brought to the United States from the different consulates and their dependencies, whose passages were paid at the treasury, during the two fiscal years commencing 1st July, 1845, and ending 30th June, 1847.

No. 1.

Statement showing the names of the consuls and commercial agents of the United States; their places of residence; of what country a citizen; and the amount of fees received by each in 1846 and 1847, as far as is shown by the returns received at the Department of State.
